WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

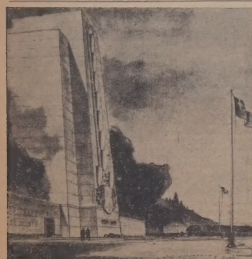

DRAWN PERON FIRE—Award of the Nobel prize in medicine to Dr. Bernardo Alberto Houssay, Argentine scientist, was reflected in an unprecedented attack contained in the government organ Razon, published in Buenos Aires. The article, illustrated by a cartoon, which depicted Dr. Houssay climbing a tree bearing fruit labelled "Nobel Prize", said that "once again the Nobel Prize has been decided on political grounds. Dr. Houssay was 'purged' from the University of Buenos Aires medical faculty last year."

SNOW OR NO SNOW, POLICE HAND OUT PARKING TICKETS—Three-day blizzard sent more of the year to hit Fort Frances, Ont., left. Left: 15 inches in its wake. Helping each other over a huge pile of snow on way to work are Doreen, (left), and Lois Brecken, (right). Police issued parking tickets for overnight parking on the snowed-in vehicles.

ORDER OF MERIT GIVEN MR. KING—First Canadian to receive the honor, Prime Minister. Macdonald King has been awarded the Order of Merit, the highest honor the King can bestow which does not carry a title. The order is restricted to 24 members and is awarded for "exceptional meritorious service" in the service of the crown. The award, shown here, was followed by an invitation to lunch with the King and Queen.

WAR MEMORIAL for every Canadian who helped save Canada in years of peril is announced by Prime Minister King. Design of the memorial will be decided by contest of Canadian artists. This is sketch suggested by Benjamin Greber, planning expert, but design will be by a Canadian.

$597,000,000 STOP-GAP ON STARVATION—U.S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall is conferring with Lewis Douglas, (center), U.S. ambassador to Great Britain, and Robert Lovett, undersecretary of state, (right), last before Secretary Marshall appeared before the joint Senate and House meeting on foreign aid. Secretary Marshall requested $597,000,000 as stop-gap aid to forestall starvation in Europe until such time as Congress can act on the Marshall plan, or the European Recovery Plan, as it is now called.

"PIMPENEY" AUTHOR DIES—Barbara Grey, 50, author of the best-selling Pimpenev novels, died in London, Eng., on Nov. 12. In half a century Barbara Grey wrote more than 50 novels and plays, including many detective stories and tales of the French revolution. During the war Barbara Grey was kept under surveillance by the Germans at her villa in Monte Carlo.

ARMED THUGS THE DENTIST, GIRLS, ESCAPE WITH $600—Armed and masked, two men raped Dr. K. L. Levinson, Toronto dentist, and three girls. They then robbed the office of a grocery market, next to Dr. Levinson's office, carrying with $600. Money was on desk when one of gunmen entered office at Master Food Market, over the store, and scooped it up. Frances Kinsler, Lillian Woodell, and Ester Martin were captured by dentist's office, and told.

WELSH TAR RATTLES DEPORTATION—When Christopher Key, (right), "jumped ship" from the S.S. Parthian, in Vancouver, he intended to stay in Canada for a short visit, but met Phyllis Bessie from St. John, Man., (left), and changed his mind. He met her in a restaurant as Winnipeg had become mugged two weeks later. Now he wants to settle down in Winnipeg and save enough money to start a paint shop—if immigration authorities agree.

FLAUNTING LOGGERS' CAMP—Little of duty on some types of Canadian lumber exported to the U.S. has given new impetus to Canada's lumber industry. Communities from Nova Scotia to British Columbia will be affected, and a major expansion is expected. Here is a floating loggers' camp at Holberg, B.C. It is a community on rafts. Private homes and bunkhouse can be seen in the center of the picture, community hall and dining hall are in the background at right.

WELLES' GENIUS DIDN'T COME HOME, SAYS RITA—Crown Prince has often been referred to as Hollywood's triple-threat genius, but he left it all at the studio, declared Rita Hayworth, glamorous girl of the screen, who obtained a divorce from him. Couple are shown here prior to breakup of romance on March 10.

SPEEDERS, BEWARE! YOU CAN'T ARGUE WITH THIS SPEED TRAP—Apparatus used in speed trap which has brought summonses to 75 motorists in Brampton, Ont., in five hours is displayed by Sgt. Frank Keates. Air line hose straddles across road, contact operates switch sending current over the wire to operator. Oakville equipment was also made by Sgt. Frank Keates. Current operates bell to inform operator. Oakville mayor, C. V. Hillier, says 30-mile speed limit is to be obeyed.

RED CROSS WORKERS REMEMBER EUROPEAN CHILDREN—The Red Cross, though mostly concerned with providing the necessities of life to people stricken with calamities such as famine, epidemics or earthquakes, the minor things are not forgotten. The Canadian Red Cross now has dozens of volunteers making dolls for shipment to children in the distressed areas of Europe.

Ice House For The Farm

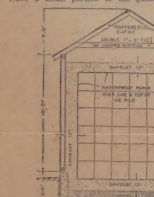

One electric pump is available on a farm, most people have little time to waste in the cold refrigerators. But there are still thousands of farms which are dependent on stored ice for cooling milk and for house and refrigerator. In response to a reasonable manner, refrigeration should be a plan for a farm ice house the accompanying drawings have been prepared.

While an ice house need not be as large as a barn, it is wise to choose a site as close to the house as possible. The ice house should be built on a level, well-drained site. The ice house should be built on a level, well-drained site. The ice house should be built on a level, well-drained site.

Dog Knows Value Of Nickel, And Buys Ice Cream

PORT SMITH, Ark.—"Jake" knows the value of a nickel, but he also likes ice cream cones. It is a famous sight on the main street of Port Smith to see "Jake" sitting on a bench, waiting for a nickel to come his way.

"That's his way of asking for 'ice cream cone, please'," says a local resident. "Jake" is a small, scruffy dog, but he is very smart. He has learned to sit on a bench and wait for a nickel to come his way.
